Elephant Sanctuary (Half-Day, SIC)

Nestled within the lush landscapes of Krabi, the elephant sanctuary offers a sanctuary of compassion and respect for these majestic creatures. Here, you'll find a haven where elephants are free to roam in their natural habitat, far removed from the confines of traditional entertainment practices.

At the sanctuary, you'll have the chance to observe and interact with elephants in an ethical and responsible manner. Witness these gentle giants engaging in their daily activities, from foraging for food to playing in mud baths and socializing with one another. Expert guides will provide you with insights into their behavior, habits, and the challenges they face in the wild.

This sanctuary's primary focus is on the well-being and conservation of elephants. You'll have the opportunity to learn about their history, their significance in Thai culture, and the ongoing efforts to protect them. Engaging in activities like feeding and bathing these incredible animals allows you to form a genuine connection while contributing to their overall care.

Visiting the elephant sanctuary in Krabi is a chance to be part of a positive change in the way elephants are treated, and to foster a deeper understanding and appreciation for these iconic creatures in an environment that prioritizes their happiness and welfare.

Useful Information

Passport & Visa

You will need a passport valid for six months after arrival date and appropriate visas to enter Thailand. We cannot accept responsibility if you are refused entry to the country because you lack the correct visa documentation. Please check the Thai Ministry of Foreign Affairs website for the latest information and full details of your country's visa agreement:

<http://www.mfa.go.th/main/en/services/123/15396-Tourist-Visa-Exemption.html>

Insurance

The tour price does not include personal insurance, so we highly recommend you arrange your own insurance prior to departure, including the cost of medical evacuation by air.

Local Currency

The local currency in Thailand is the Thai Baht (THB). The current exchange rate is approximately USD($) 1 = THB 34. Major credit cards are widely accepted and foreign currency is accepted at most of the large hotels and authorized moneychangers. There are local banks as well as ATM machines in all main towns.

What do bring?

Casual and comfortable lightweight clothing is suitable for traveling in Thailand. Clothing in layers is recommended if traveling to higher altitudes. Dress modestly and don't wear shorts or sleeveless tops when visiting religious buildings. Comfortable walking shoes are recommended and should be removed before entering a private home. Wear a sarong and waist sashes when visiting temples (both are provided at additional costs). Prepare a change of dry clothes for a day including water activities such as snorkeling or canoeing.

Electricity

220 V / 50hz is used in Thailand. We recommend you bring along a travel adapter.

Weather

Thailand enjoys a warm, tropical climate year-round with the most pleasant weather from October until February when the trade winds blow. The rainy season normally starts in June and usually lasts until September.

Language

The national language, Thai, is taught in all schools and spoken at home or in the markets, although the local people speak their local dialects in rural areas. English is increasingly spoken in the main tourist centres.

Tipping and Gratuities

It is generally accepted to tip local restaurant staff, luggage porters, drivers, and guides. It is however not mandatory. Recommended tipping for guides is between THB 300-500 (USD 10-15) per day and for drivers, it is THB150-200 (USD 5-7) per day.
